

Saturday morning. Sept 10.

Dear Debora,

Thursday I believe I wrote you that the certificate arrived on Wed noon. I wrote a page on the blank side that night & sent it off & waited to see man's come. That afternoon Caroline had met Mr Burton in the street, & he told her he would come & pass the evening with her, and hinted again that he wished she would bring him & Thompson together. Accordingly a note was left at the A.S. Rooms, telling him the state of the case & asking him to drop in. He came before Burton & was very shortly & pleasant. Soon Mr Brown & oh Debora oh Aunt Mary had both of you but not been present. We never heard till I debate before in private & we agreed that his private teachings were better than his public. He was eloquence itself. He never held back or wto of the truth, & yet he was perfectly gentlemanly. Poor Mr Burton was all used up. They staid till after 11. We made up a fire in the school room & shut out the girls. I believe I wrote you that Maria was in treaty for the Free Methodist church, the man promised them that if they would procure a responsible man, they should have it & told them they might advertise, & he would come in to see Henry at 3 o'clock / This by the way was out at Brookline where Ann Mary & her mother went to see him / When he came to see Henry he said that he meant that the value of the building Twenty thousand dollars should be deposited in some place where he could draw from it at his own option, the value of what ever his chief might be done, at his own estimation. This of course ^{was} present as a get off. Henry & Ellis Lee Loring gave it to him about $100, but you see the thing is ¹¹ up. We shall take Gulian Hale. I called yesterday at Mr

Bailey but they were all out. Mr & Mrs B gone to Br. me & S. A some where else. I send last week's librarior this weeks is not yet come. We have had a letter from Princie Beale stating that he could not afford to send his daughter to so expensive a school. You will have heard I suppose of Capt Moorfield's death & of Miss Auden's. Warren some thinks of coming down in a chaise to morrow morning. If he does he can bring you in & perhaps Aunt Mary too. I met S. Tufts in the street yesterday & she was very said. Maria Goodwin has left Mr Bailey & set up for ~~herself~~^{for her son}. Give my love to all. The things came safe ^{to} by Keen's Corr^{er} but I shall put poste out by him ^{on} the mare probably back from Keen's by Tuesday night.

ever you come. Look around once more for my cloak & ask him ^{if} he found about it
